This is one of the more famous pieces for tuba. At [2] the main theme is introduced as a tuba solo. Throughout the work the tuba joins other instruments in the same theme. At these times the tuba becomes a bit less important as a solo voice and is more a support to the other instruments. For example, one measure after [5], the trumpet and English horn join the tuba. At this point the tuba is marked ppp and is asked to play as an echo of the first passage, while the other two instruments are marked mf. Special care should be taken with dynamics and rhythm.

The image displays a musical score for 'The Swan' by Camille Saint-Saëns, specifically the section for the Swan's entrance. It consists of three staves of music, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The first staff begins with a half note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, and then a series of eighth notes. The second staff starts with a half note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, and then a series of eighth notes. The third staff begins with a half note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, and then a series of eighth notes. The score includes various dynamics such as mf (mezzo-forte), f (forte), and ppp (pianissimo). There are also articulations like accents and slurs. The piece concludes with the word 'etc.' and a ppp marking.
